

TNVLC Nashville Chapter

Meeting 2019.04.13

In attendance:

Rafe Donahue, David Kilborn, Brian Sauls, Brad Kaufman, Greg Wiley, Faustino Ciapati, Becca Joy, Jenni Joy, and others.

Mtg opened at 12:30p at the Nashville Library with Faustino starting his building.

President Edward Sampson is excused.

Children hospital in Dayton, Georgia wanted a logo. Faustino designed logo mosaic of over twenty thousand pieces. Planning construction is underway. Some building will be done by the club, some building done by staff and children.

Events:

Brick blast planning on Tuesday. Date unknown.

No one is going to Brick Universe Lexington.

Heroes and Villains is 8:23 through 8:25. Several members will attend. Layout needs to be planned: Brick heads, city, habitats, general mocs. 8 tables anticipated.

Wilson county fair: contact David M if able to help.

Williamson county fairgrounds ICC. September 13 through 15. Set up September 12. Waiting on more details from Willie. Expecting at least half a dozen.

Brick universe Knoxville. September 20 through 22. Planned attendance unknown.

November AFOL day planned for community center in Madison for a group get-together with Knoxville and Huntsville. November 9.

Business meetings are the second Saturday of every odd month.

AFOL is on August 3.

Other things:

Rafe described an unhappy purchase experience at shop-at-home using the new VIP voucher system.

Show and tell:

Faustino: Cosmic Treadmill. Friends Nightrider Car plus lights and sound.

Brian discussed the latest PaB wall at Nashville Lego Store. People excited about the selection. Brian said he bought 18 cups.

LUGBulk: We are awaiting news of our part of the order. We have several people available to help with pick and sorting.

Mtg adjourned at 3:35p.