Brick Blast Recap

- Attendance was around 500 for both days
- Additional advertising was suggested
- Additional planning with a possible meeting before the event was suggested due to some product being stranded in Huntsville, AL.

Suggestions for Next Brick Blast

- Friday Setup, Saturday Only, Sunday Tear down
- Parts draft for club members with a parts sort before the event.
- Event raffles for visitors only
- Dinner after setup on Friday

Brick Universe Recap

- New placement of displays for better flow
- Create an event kit of supplies (basic tools & first aid kit)
- Possible use of <https://www.signupgenius.com/> to prevent duplicate items from being brought

Future Events

 - January 18th 10:00 am - 11:30 am
 - January 25th 10:00 am - 11:30 am
 - February 1st 10:00 am - 11:30 am
 - February 8th 10:00 am - 11:30 am
- Brentwood Library - Mini Brick Blast in April or May
- Wilson County Fair - August 2020?

LugBulk

- David M. suggested picking a color and requesting many parts of that color to aid building

Build Contest

- Micropolis
 - 16 x 16 using TwinLug (<http://twinlug.com/micropolis-micro-city-standard/>) standard with the Base Module being optional. Sidewalks and roads are required. Brian will send out additional details next week. Builds are due at the March 14th meeting.

General Discussion

- Discord for club communication?
- Faustino discussed a project from his previous LUG in which displays were created based on books. Sizes thrown out were 64x64, 32x32, and 16x16 (habitat size?) These could also be used as traveling displays.
- Social Events will be held on even months. Play brick sort, Table and stanchion builds, etc.
- AFOL day coming up on the 18th of January.

Show and Tell

- David McClatchey brought super-old LEGO sets for us to “ooh” and “ahh” over.
- David McClatchey also brought in a custom modular lit with a light bar from Blinky Bricks
