Attendees: Rafe Donahue, Brian Sauls, David Kilborn, David McClatchey, Edward Sampson, Roger McLauchlan, Brad Kaufman, JD Birdwell, Willie and Vette Neblett, Marty Mitchell, Larry Miller, Paul Wornack

Welcome from Brian.

Admin stuff: Brian needs access to the calendar.

Brian tested negative for COVID19.

Sig figs order from Ethan from Ktown Bricks in Knoxville. Let's get them. Brian will investigate and figure out colors.

Table skirts. Still need a formal plan but David and Kelly to get info to Brian on current raw materials.

Table build and stanchion builds are on-hold until further notice.

Events: nothing planned except "Virtual Brickworld" coming up in May, June, and this Fall.
brickworld.com

Lugbulk: No update. Next step will be to send in money. Stories have surfaced that other LUGs have received their orders so things seem to be underway.

Social mtgs: Nothing really planned for now. Contemplating a zoom mtg perhaps in June. July mtg should be virtual as well.

Build contest: Build a book. The winning entry is Count of Monte Cristo by JD Birdwell.
Congratulations!!!

Next build contest is habitats. Only one can be submitted per person. Small vignette build based on a minifig. Link can be found online: <https://www.brickfair.com/Habitats/>

Marty's Lockdown Challenge: build an animal with 20 or fewer parts.

David M shared a virtual space scene. JD shared a ship with a kraken. Vette showed some modular houses. Edward shared a version of the KIT car from Knight Rider.

Mtg adjourned just shy of 4p.
