Business:

1. Club contests:

- a. Extreme Safety Measures Contest Results: Marty showed pictures of the entries to the chapter competition. Judges were impressed with all the entries. Prizes were awarded from club support.
    - i. First place: Jamie Johnson w/ Candian Bunker.
    - ii. Second place: Brian and Elaine White w/ Beachside Office
    - iii. Third place: Daniel Zion w/ Safety Checks These Days
  - b. New Contest coming after the first of the year: Lego in Motion.
- 2. Officer Elections coming up at the December meeting. Marty will likely be running for chapter president again. Pete will likely be stepping down as the Club President - Brian Sauls from Nashville has been unofficially nominated; Charles Naumann has been nominated for club-wide Treasurer.
- 3. Upcoming Socially Distanced Parts Draft. Available sets are City Rover Testing Drive (x5) and Hidden Side El Fuego Stunt truck (x5). Will likely happen before Thanksgiving – planned for Nov 14th, likely in the morning at a park. You can provide an extra copy of one of these sets to Marty to get another pick per round.
- 4. LUGBulk Update: Charles is still working on the split by chapter. We hope to get it in the next few weeks. Next year's LUGBulk will start soon.
